Aarush Khare

(408) 819 6892 • aarushkhare@berkeley.edu

Education

University of California, Berkeley Summer 2025 to Spring 2029
GPA: 4.0/4.0, Bachelor's in Computer Science
Regents' and Chancellor's Scholar

Homestead High School: Cupertino, CA Class of 2025
GPA: 4.0/4.0, Valedictorian

Mission College: Santa Clara, CA Dual Enrollment
GPA: 4.0/4.0
Courses: Differential Equations, Multivariable Calculus, Linear Algebra

Work Experience

Computer Science Instructor: AlphaStar Academy August 2024 – May 2025
Taught algorithmic concepts, prepared lecture notes, and guided practice for students using Python, C++, and Java

Achievements

USA Computing Olympiad (USACO): Platinum Division December 2023
Ranked 69th among pre-college participants worldwide in January 2024

USA Math Olympiad (USAMO): 2x USAJMO Winner, 1x USAMO HM 2022, 2023, 2024
Top 25 students 10th grade and under in the United States, Top 125 high school students

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA): 4th Place National Rank April 2023, 2024
Ranked 4th in Coding & Programming in the United States; 1st place in Data Analysis, State Champion

Harvard-MIT Math Tournament (HMMT): 2nd Place Overall Team February 2024

Stanford Math Tournament (SMT): 2nd Place Overall Team April 2023

Summer Activities

PROMYS (Math Program) at Boston University: Student June 2024 – August 2024
Program in Mathematics for Young Scientists; One of 80 students selected worldwide to attend an intensive, residential math program featuring lectures, collaborative problem solving, individual research, and open-ended exploration.

Volunteer

Math Workshop Director: Avenidas Senior Center October 2023 – June 2025
Created and delivered math-based workshops for seniors to promote mental sharpness and slow cognitive decline.

Skills

C++, Java, Python, ReactJS, SQL, LaTeX, Asymptote