PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Rafnum Partners Jul. 2025 – Present
Summer Intern Remote

- Constructed a leveraged buyout model for a ~$5M EBITDA healthcare services firm in Houston, Texas, testing revenue growth assumptions and running 15 sensitivity scenarios on margins, cash conversion, and projected free cash flow.
- Developed a competitive landscape dataset of 271 peers for a Houston-based homecare agency, allowing Rafnum Partners' sourcing team to streamline its pipeline screening process and cut average diligence time by about 40%.

Turtle Island Restoration Network Jul. 2025 – Present
Environmental Policy Research & Advocacy Intern Remote

- Drafted a policy memo and authored a public comment opposing the $10B Bluewater Texas Terminal project, which was later cited by three national coalitions affiliated with TIRN in coordinated federal lobbying efforts to the EPA.
- Synthesized eight NOAA fishery rules and California forage protections, helping to produce a 45-page policy report supported by regression analysis of twenty years of biomass surveys, landings receipts, and fisheries enforcement data.

Duke University, Department of Classics and Ancient History Jun. 2023 – Nov. 2023
Research Assistant Remote

- Curated a 1,400+ source bibliography for Professor Alicia Jiménez's forthcoming book, reducing her manuscript preparation time by nearly sixty percent and ensuring consistent citation standards across all of the book's chapters.
- Analyzed 250+ Roman imperial provincial inscriptions for comparative trends, and my findings were incorporated into two chapters of the manuscript as well as her successful National Endowment for the Humanities grant renewal.

EXTRACURRICULAR EXPERIENCE

Spieker Student Advisory Board Jun. 2025 – Present
Spieker Class of 2029 Representative (Fall Co-Chair of Haas Business Events) Berkeley, CA

- Manage $100K+ budget, will meet with Spieker alumni board (Haas donors), and work with the Berkeley Haas administration to sponsor activities, programs, and organize social events for 800+ business students and faculty.
- Provide thoughtful, data-driven feedback on the Spieker program's curriculum, co-curricular activities, academic polices, and other initiatives to evaluate and support student academic, professional, and personal growth.

HONORS & PUBLICATIONS

USA Computing Olympiad (Platinum Division Qualifier, Jan. 2022)

- Ranked among the top 200 high school competitive programmers nationwide, qualifying for the highest division.

The Concord Review ("Road to the Rubicon: Analyzing the Buildup to Caesar's Civil War," Mar. 2023)

- Published a 40-page historical analysis on the constitutional breakdown and civil war in the Late Roman Republic.
